Opponents PPG are calculated based on:
- Home Points Per Game of opponents faced away
- Away Points Per Game of opponents faced at home

More information about the details of each opponent PPG value is visible by hovering the mouse cursor over any of the 'Opponents PPG' values.

Note: The 'Points Performance Index' is calculated by multiplying the team's Points per Game (PPG) by the combined PPG average of their played opponents (Away PPG of opponents played at home and Home PPG of opponents played away).

The table is described in more details in the Points Performance Index blog article.

Segments Table

The Segments Table is a visual representation splitting the teams into 5 segments. Each team is assigned to a specific segment, depending on the team's number of points. Each of the 5 segments spans one-fifth (20%) of the total points held by the team ranked 1st in the league. For each team, the number of matches played appears in green between brackets, and the number of points is displayed in black.

More statistics tables can be accessed from the 'Statistics' dropdown list on the league navigation menu.

After 57 matches played in the Spanish LaLiga, a total of 175 goals have been scored (3.07 goals per match on average). The menus above provide access to league-level statistics and results analysis, including LaLiga results and goal scoring stats such as clean sheets, average goals scored and goals conceded.

The number of matches included in the regular season may differ depending on the way each league is structured. For most national leagues, the stats above relate to the selected league competition in the regular season, excluding playoff matches. Some leagues include additional rounds of matches, for which dedicated group tables may be featured on this page. When such group tables are displayed on the main league page, the stats above also include the matches related to those tables.
